

HKAR-183 Representatives of Director-General Introductory Training Course

HKAR-183 was published in 21 Mar 2012 to enhance the efficiency and effectiveness of airworthiness management by approving persons to carry out airworthiness-related activities.

Who should attend?

- Airline Engineering Management
- Quality Assurance Personnel
- Aircraft Induction Technical Personnel
- Fleet Technical Management Service Provider
- Aviation Technical Consultant

The course will address the following subjects:

- Current HK regulatory requirements
- International regulatory requirements
- Overview of HKAR-183
- ODA application and manuals
- ODA holders' roles and responsibilities
- C of A issuance procedures
- ODA report standards