

Aircraft and Operator Approval

- Approval by state of registry
- ICAO set specific requirements for RVSM certification, termed,
 - Minimum Aircraft System Performance Specification (MASPS)
 - Promulgated in JAA TGL6 rev 1 and FAA91-RVSM

Aircraft and Operator Approval

- The Asia Pacific Approvals and Registry Monitoring Organisation (APARMO) is the coordinating body for the Western Pacific South China Sea Area
- APARMO Website http://www.tc.faa.gov/act-500/niaab/rvsm/aparmo_intro.html contains all required procedures to obtain RVSM Approval

Aircraft and Operator Approval

- Manufacturer/operator demonstrates compliance with MASPS, including maintenance and repair capability. Airworthiness Approval is issued
- Aircraft height monitoring may now commence in accordance with APARMO requirements
- Monitoring may take place before issue of full RVSM Operational Approval by State Authority

Aircraft and Operator Approval

- Full RVSM Operational Approval is issued after State Authority is satisfied with operator's Operations Manual, crew training and maintenance procedures, specific to RVSM operations
- New aircraft – delivery from manufacturer
- New aircraft types

