

Assistant Operations Officer (Aviation Administration) Recruitment Exercise – Latest updates

The recruitment advertisement of the above-mentioned post promulgated on 28 August 2026 has been updated on 11 September 2026. The updates are as follows –

- (a) Students pursuing a bachelor's degree or equivalent and graduating in 2027 may also apply. They would only be considered for appointment if they attain the requisite academic qualification by 2027;
- (b) Applicants who do not possess the requisite Common Recruitment Examination (“CRE”) results or equivalent at the time of application must have made a separate application for taking the coming CRE in October 2026 in Hong Kong, or in December 2026 in seven other cities (i.e. Beijing, Shanghai, London, New York, Toronto, Vancouver and Sydney) in order to be considered for appointment. For applicants who will take the above CRE, their applications will be processed subject to their obtaining the requisite CRE results; and
- (c) The deadline for submitting applications will be extended to 25 September 2026.

2. Applicants please also note that –

- (a) Eligibility of applicants who applied before 11 September 2026 would not be affected, and they need not make a separate application again; and
- (b) All applicants’ suitability for appointment will be assessed based on the updated recruitment advertisement.

Civil Aviation Department