

HKCAD AMA Appointment/ Reappointment Guidelines

Initial AMA Appointment:

	Requirements
(1) Medical Licence to Practice	(a) Register to practice medicine in Hong Kong (b) Current Annual Practising Certificate
(2) Aviation Medicine Training *	(a) Occupational and Environmental Medicine (OEM) specialist in Hong Kong or working in an Aviation Medicine position (b) Hold a higher qualification in Aviation Medicine such as the Diploma in Aviation Medicine (c) Ability to read ECGs
(3) Experience in assessing the licence holder's fitness for work	(a) Being a HKCAD Approved Medical Examiner (AME) for at least 5 years, and during which time he/she has completed a minimum of 100 medical examinations per year; or (b) Working in OEM for at least 5 years, being a Fellow of HKCCM and Fellow of HKAM, and having qualification and practical experience in Aviation Medicine with exposure to licence holder's medical examinations
(4) Familiarity with the working conditions of licence holders	Visits to ATC facilities, flight simulator facilities and where possible, cockpit exposure
(5) Declaration of Good Standing	See Note below

Note: A candidate who has a record of any professional misconduct or any offence involved imprisonment, whether in Hong Kong or elsewhere, must provide details to HKCAD at the time of application or as soon as possible if he has been already an AMA.

Remarks:

* HKCAD has the final decision on the acceptance of the Aviation Medicine Training not listed above.

Reappointment of AMA:

	Requirements
(1) Medical Assessments	Must conduct more than 30 medical assessments in the appointment period and before submission of reappointment application
(2) Continuous Medical Education (CME) in relation to Aviation Medicine	Documentary evidence of achieving a total of 90 CME points (i.e. equivalent to 90 hours) within 3-year period of appointment, in which at least 20 points (i.e. 20 hours) shall consist of Aviation Medicine content
(3) Performance	Performance will be reviewed by other AMAs and submitted to Chief, Flight Standards' final decision
(4) Declaration of Good Standing	See Note above

Disclaimer:

- Candidates who satisfy the above criteria should not expect an automatic appointment or renewal of appointment. HKCAD has the final decision on whom to appoint or reappoint.
- Exemption may be granted to the person approved by Director-General of Civil Aviation.